COMPANY TRAINING SOLUTIONS

- English and Intercultural Awareness

A course which combines Specialist English with Intercultural Awareness training. This is intended for multinational groups from the same company or for monolingual groups which have to work more internationally. It is especially suitable for companies involved in mergers, acquisitions or takeovers, or for companies involved in expansion into new markets.

- Team English

A unique chance for a team, a department or a board of directors to learn English together and, more than English, to learn to work together as a team. The programme is designed together with the client in order to provide specialist English training in the specific corporate area of work plus Teambuilding activities, Problem Solving modules, Case Study work and Social Activities.

- Reward English

For a company to reward an individual manager or a successful team. A combination of specialist English training and activities. In this way the company is able to train the managers in a vital skill but at the same time the managers are able to enjoy an activity. A reward for all! Activities include Golf, Horse Riding, Tennis, Sailing and Kiteboarding. Formats are for individuals or for corporate groups.

- Corporate Simulations in English

Specially-designed and individually-written simulations for corporate clients which can be delivered in the UK or in the clients' own training centres. Simulations create an environment which reproduces the real working environment – meetings, negotiations, presentations, emails, finances, strategy – all in the specific area of work of the client. And all in English. For groups of 8 to 30.

- In-company Training

Training in your own training centre or corporate offices. For one person for one day; for 70 people for a week or for 200 people for the whole year – Accent has performed all of these successfully in different countries around the world. Formats can be instructional, seminars, simulations, case-study, coaching etc.

- A Total VIP Programme

This provides a total solution in one course. It is a 12 week programme of specialist English for the busy senior executive or top professional which provides highly individualised training with high quality delivery in a very flexible package.

Preparation

Initial detailed language assessment, needs analysis, tailor-made course design and negotiation of training calendar and course content.
