

English & Golf

Individuals
Small Groups
Corporate Packages

Accent

All in wonderful surroundings. All in a relaxed

Accent International is a specialist organisation working in English for Executives and Professionals only.

Founded in 1988, Accent's centre in the UK is Bicton College, an 18th century manor house in 200 hectares of private park – the former home of Lord Clinton.

Accent at Bicton College

Accent provides professional language training and consultancy for blue-chip clients all over the world.

From one-to-one, small group and corporate programmes in the UK to seminars, residential programmes and in-company training in other countries, Accent is an accredited organisation and a recognised leader in its field.

Woodbury Park is a golf and country club set in 250 hectares.

Founded by Nigel Mansell, the former F1 World Champion, it comprises two magnificent golf courses, a sports and leisure complex with tennis courts and swimming pool, spa and sauna, fishing lakes, a hotel, luxury lodges, restaurants and bars, the Colin Chapman Suite, the Greg Norman Suite and the unique Nigel Mansell World of Racing exhibition.

Accent International and Woodbury Park are less than ten minutes apart and this co-operation on English and Golf brings together two organisations which both seek excellence in all aspects of their services.

English and Golf courses are intended for those individuals and companies who wish to take advantage of the opportunity to travel to a very beautiful part of the world, study specialist English intensively and combine this with golf tuition and play. All in wonderful surroundings. All in a relaxed but effective environment. All with professionals.

Participation on these courses is strictly limited.

at effective environment. All with professionals.

Individual Programme GI20

This programme comprises 20 hours per week of one-to-one specialist English training at Accent International and 5 afternoons per week of individual tuition or play with a golf professional at Woodbury Park.

All preparation, course design, materials, daily transport, green fees, tuition, lunches and social programme are included in the price.

Participants can be from Beginner to Advanced in both English and also Golf. This course is available all year beginning every Monday.

Open Small Group Programmes OSG20

This programme comprises 20 hours of general or business English in a small group of maximum 6 participants at Accent International and 5 afternoons of group tuition or play with a golf professional at Woodbury Park. Individual students may apply and Accent International will form the groups to be cohesive in terms of English and also Golf.

All preparation, course design, materials, daily transport, green fees, tuition, lunches and social programme are included in the price.

Participants can be from Pre-intermediate to Advanced in both English and also Golf.

This course is only available on specific dates during the year. Please see the application form for the dates available.

Corporate Packages CPG

Accent International and Woodbury Park will design tailor-made programmes for companies. These could be for departmental groups, for senior executives or for larger corporate groups. They can be used for international gatherings, team-building or company incentive schemes. They can include special training, gala dinners, wide social programme etc.

Please contact us for details of possibilities.

Accommodation Options

There are two types of accommodation available on these English and Golf programmes. The first is Executive Home Stay where the participant stays in the beautiful home of an English professional family. Room with private bathroom, breakfast and evening meal are included at a very high standard.

The second is to stay at Woodbury Park itself in the hotel of the country club. Again this provides high-quality accommodation, breakfast and evening meal. Whatever type of accommodation you choose, lunch is always with trainers and is included in the course price.

For full details of dates, regulations and prices, please see the application form.

English & Golf

Contact:

Accent International
Bicton College
East Budleigh
Devon EX9 7BY
UK

Tel: + 44 1395 567789

Fax: + 44 1395 568195

Email: admin@accent-international.co.uk

Web: www.accent-international.com

Accent